We continue with Selichot on Saturday evening, September 20 starting at 8:00 PM with a fascinating presentation and discussion of aspects of the new, not yet published High Holy Day prayer book Mishkan HaNefesh. We are one of the first congregations who will be using this new book in 2015. A dessert oneg and services led by Rabbi Bloom and our soloist Adriana Urato will follow. Please plan to join us.

The theme of our High Holy Day period is "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" as we honor our past and present leaders and our young members who represent the promise of the future.

I must admit that I am relieved that the summer has arrived. It was a big year of activities and special events with transitions from our soloist Jaquey Schmid to our outgoing President Mike Weingarten. We are happy to welcome Twyla Sable to the position of President. Now that the summer is here it is time to take a respite for a while and rejuvenate. In addition, this is the time for planning next year’s activities. This is also the time for rabbis to give thought to their High Holy Day sermons. Yes, they take time to contemplate and write so that they touch on the most important kinds of spiritual issues of the hour in our world.

I know that along with change comes the question of where are we going? This year we grew in numbers almost 10 percent as a congregation. We are about to exceed 300 families and we are adding new staff to meet the needs of a real life congregation. Let’s not forget we have good problems such as how to manage the growth and integrate so many new members over the years. Our challenge is making sure that while we are doing our best to provide for the spiritual and educational needs of the congregation we do not lose sight of holding on to that sense of family that the earliest members of our congregation cherish and sometimes miss about the growing congregation.

The truth is that it takes effort and work to create a tone in a congregation where we all feel a sense of identity with, and belongingness to, Beth Yam. I surely accept my responsibility to nurture that community feeling. It is also everyone else’s duty to participate in a way that shows that this Temple belongs to us all.

I have seen, as you may have also experienced or observed, how people’s lives in this congregation have been touched, whether it was celebrating a B’nai Mitzvah or mourning the death of a loved one or receiving comfort from a hospital visit from me or from the care committee. It is clear that we do want to do the right thing for our congregants and that our temple members want to do right by the community at large. That is the reason we are engaged in a partnership to elevate and enrich each other’s lives.

Of course, we do some amazing things and other times we make mistakes. In Leviticus 19 it is written; “You shall be holy for I the Eternal your God am holy (19:1).” The rabbi of Kotzk was asked by his disciples what that really meant. He answered them, “You shall be humanly holy.” Yes we are flawed and sometimes things are said in a moment which hurt or offend others. Sometimes we forget to include someone in an event or reach out to bring someone to a temple event like services and we start to feel no one cares about us. The truth of the matter is that being flawed and making mistakes is part of what religion is all about. It is about correcting those mistakes and making it better. That is what I mean by being “humanly holy.”

Let’s take some time this summer to think about what temple means to us and how we can find our niche and uplift someone else’s soul and make a difference for others. That too is what the Rabbi of Kotzk meant by urging his students to strive not to be God but to be “humanly holy.”

Shalom

Rabbi Bloom

President’s Message

This is the beginning of my term of office as President of the Congregation. It is a great honor to be here and to serve Beth Yam. I look forward to developing new ideas, working with all of you and personally meeting with each of you.

It is a pleasure to welcome our newest Board members Ed Brager and Melanie Wynne and our Sisterhood President, Cathy Kite and Men’s Club President, Stuart Blickstein to the Board of Directors. Also, welcome back to Janet Weingarten. I would like to thank Michael Shapiro, Mike Mogil, Ted David and Nelson Adelman for all their dedication and years of service to Congregation Beth Yam as they leave the Board of Directors.

In my new adventure my wish is to have Congregation Beth Yam be the best synagogue, not only in the Lowcountry, but also the best anywhere. In this case, best means warmest and friendliest and the place where members of the local Jewish community, visiting affiliate members and just visitors feel they belong.

As of May 31, 2014, the number of members, including affiliates was 291. This past year we had 29 new members join. It won't be long until we can say we are a congregation of over 300 families.

Many thanks are in order to the Retirement Party Committee chaired by Ted David who planned and hosted the party in honor of Mike Weingarten’s outstanding two years as President. The food, the music and, of course, the “roast” were memorable. Thank you all who came in recognition of Mike and in tribute to his hard work and achievements as President.

Mazel Tov to Rebecca Keating and Cameron Wynne on being so well prepared for their Bat and Bar Mitzvah. A special thanks to Harold Hauer and Jennifer Friedman who provided the special volunteer tutoring for these newest adult members of the Congregation. We should all “kvell” that our Religious School Principal, Judi Kleiman, and teachers have prepared our students so well. This Congregation is the hub of Jewishness in the Lowcountry and we, as a synagogue, need to be ambassadors to tell the local community who we are and what we can do. We also need to say to our families and friends from New York, Maryland, Ohio, Pennsylvania and everywhere else when they say, “I didn't know there was a 'shul' in Hilton Head.” — there is not only a shul, but it works for all of us and is really one of the centers of our life.

Remember there are programs for almost every interest, including Adult Education, Social Action, Care, Membership, Outreach, Sisterhood, Men’s Club, 92nd St. Y Series, Shabbat Services, Hot Topic Shabbats, Yizkor services and many other programs.

Beth Yam is here for everyone. We want you to feel a part of us whether you were founding members or are the newest member. We welcome and love to see the preschool children for Shabbat Shirah as well as our senior members. We believe in each and every one of you. You are what makes Congregation Beth Yam “tick.” You are special; we are here for you in good times and bad times.

Join with me, commit to Beth Yam, and help us to be a stronger and better synagogue. Please become an active part of this congregation, sign up for a Committee and find out how wonderful and fulfilling it can be to be a part of this Jewish community that is Congregation Beth Yam.

Shalom,
Twyla

Ritual Committee – Judy Bluestone

♦ The Ritual Committee would like to remind the congregation that all July services will be Kabbalat beginning at 6:00 PM. Rabbi Bloom will read from the Torah and deliver commentary but there will be no sermon.
♦ Beginning August 1, all Shabbat services formerly scheduled for 8:00 PM will begin at 7:30 PM. High Holy Day evening services will remain at 8:00 PM.
♦ Our first Tikkun Leil Shavuot program was well received and will become an annual worship experience.
♦ We are developing strategies for stimulating interest in attending festival morning services: Sukkot, Passover, and Shavuot.
♦ We have formed a subcommittee to plan a year-long series of programs and events to introduce the new High Holy Day prayer books to the congregation.
Religious School ~ Judi Kleiman, Principal

Our school year ended on the 18th of May with a blowout picnic for about 75 people sponsored by the Men’s Club and managed by the Religious School Committee. It was a beautiful day, the food was yummy and the Rabbi taught us all about Lag Ba’Omer. This holiday is a counting off of the 49 days between Pesach and Shavuot and the only day a couple can marry during these 49 days. We rejoice with picnics, playing outside, and gatherings to demonstrate our appreciation for freedom. It was a great day for all who attended.

Now, it is time to start looking forward to another school year which will not begin for students until Sunday, September 7. How fortunate we are to be crossing the threshold of 300 member families and soon we may have 60 children in the religious school!

I am thrilled to announce that within the next two years we expect to celebrate 8-10 B’nai Mitzvot. Although this is very exciting, it also means that we are in need of more teachers and I’m hoping that you can help. If you, or anyone you know, would like to teach in our Sunday School Program, I’d appreciate hearing from you or them as quickly as possible. If you have any teaching experience, you know how fulfilling it is to help shape a child’s mind and watch them get excited about learning. Teaching Judaism to children is even more special because not only do you make a difference in their lives, but they do the same for you!

I am happy to meet with anyone who may have an interest in teaching or assisting in our classes and I will personally help our new teachers with the preparation and orientation of our school. My experience has taught me that it is our job to teach all students to the best of his or her ability. Success makes children do and want more. Our job is to help them get there!

I look forward to hearing from you as we create another year’s exciting curriculum and events.

תודה רבה, Todah Rabbah

Social Action ~ Judie Aronson

SAC shows support for World Wide Social Justice Issues

The Social Action Committee has recently sent an e-mail of support to the URJ-RAC committee on the issue of the abduction of the Nigerian Schoolgirls in the hopes that a positive stand against these abductions will be taken and that with pressure from world-wide organizations, the Nigerian government will take positive action against this atrocity. For further information see the hashtag BRING BACK OUR GIRLS on Twitter.

The SAC has also supported the Reform Synagogue in Israel that was vandalized (more than once) by other Jewish sects.

New SAC projects for the coming year

Twyla Sable graciously hosted Sisterhood’s latest Lilith Salon on Wednesday, June 18. More than 25 women met at this quarterly event for a buffet dinner prepared by some of the finest Jewish cooks in the Lowcountry. A thought-provoking discussion on the Lilith Magazine article “BLT Judaism” by Rachel Kadish was led by Janet Weingarten. This article chronicled the author’s changing beliefs on kashrut and the challenges it presents to life in an ever-changing world. Many thanks to Twyla, Janet, and coordinator, Elaine Lust, for this very special evening. We hope you will be able to join us for our next Lilith Salon when we resume in the fall.

The Sisterhood annual membership and dues campaign has begun. Please watch your mail for our colorful flyer and review the important information. You will find a checklist of Sisterhood activities that appeal to the varied interests of our members. Take a moment to fill it out and return it with your dues. Every Sisterhood member has a voice and we want to hear yours. Click here if you prefer to download this form.

I have frequently been asked, “What does Sisterhood do with the money?” CBY Sisterhood promotes projects and activities that benefit everyone who walks through our doors. We provide assistance for programs to aid the needy in our community, enrich the lives of our young people through camp and leadership scholarships, arrange onegs and maintain the CBY Sisterhood kitchen. We support lifelong learning for our members through seminars, Lilith Salons and Book Club.

A portion of your dues is contributed to regional and national WRJ. This organization, now 101 years strong, is a voice for our members on the national and international stage. At a recent meeting (May 16 - 19, 2014) the Board of Directors of WRJ issued a statement regarding the kidnapping of more than 200 schoolgirls in Nigeria. In calling for their release, WRJ joins the international community in giving voice to those unable to speak for themselves. Thank you for your continued support.

Yours in Sisterhood,
Cathy Kite

Surfing our Website ~ Joe Levy & Michael Shapiro

At the core of Judaism is the belief that the Jewish education of our children is a sacred endeavor. And ‘our children’ of course refers to our Religious School, which is the source of learning to the 50 plus children and teens it comprises. With that in mind, we want to look this month at the Youth Education tab on our CBY Web Page.

You will be able to see the various elements of youth education, with a brief description of associated relevant programs, e.g.: Kita Gan (formerly known as Tiny Tots), Religious School – Grades K-6, and all the way up to Youth Group. In addition to reading about the growth and scope of these programs, you can browse and enjoy the wonderful photo albums on the left margin. Finally, you can read the bi-monthly electronically distributed newsletter, known as Ma Kor, which our principal, Judi Kleiman, has instituted. It is a great tool for keeping parents and other family members involved and informed on our Religious School activities and events, as well as providing supplementary educational materials.

Please feel free to take a little time to look at the Youth Education tab of our Website, and get more closely in touch with the fine job our Religious School is doing in perpetuating Jewish education and values to ‘our children.’ The future of Judaism is ultimately in their hands.

SPECIAL SERVICE HONORING JAQUEY SCHMID

Jaquey Schmid’s twenty year musical journey at Congregation Beth Yam was celebrated at services on Friday, June 20. Rabbi Bloom and Jaquey led the Congregation in prayer and song. Our Shabbat Choir led by David Kimbell was there to sing and honor Jaquey.
Library Committee ~ Felicia Pascal and Linda Stern

It is summer time and the idea of cracking a good book cannot be far way. We will be “advertising” some titles in our collection when the new electronic billboard is in place at CBY. The library in the JRC collection is varied and includes many interesting novels, short stories and biographies and many other books on Torah, Talmud, Jewish customs and history. Here are a few titles you might want to check out for summer reading:

- Englander, Nathan, For the Relief of Unbearable Urges (short stories)
- Aleichem, Sholom, Tevye’s Daughters (short stories)
- Reichl, Ruth, Garlic and Sapphires (biography)
- Kemelman, Harry, Tuesday the Rabbi Saw Red (fiction-mystery)

We have added books, DVDs, CDs and tapes, thanks to the generosity of the Sisterhood and the Tarlow family. The Bursteins have provided us with several DVDs that were viewed on Movie Night and some others pre-viewed by them, but not shown. The DVDs shelved in the first bookcase are available for your viewing as well as these new titles:

- Yentl
- Lies My Father Told Me
- A Bottle in the Gaza Sea
- Language of the Enemy
- The Hare with Amber Eyes (memoir)

Happy reading and viewing!

Book Review by Felicia Pascal

The Hare with Amber Eyes by Edmund De Waal

I first heard about this book when I travelled to eastern Europe two years ago. Published in 2010, it was displayed in various book stores and recommended by our guide. This is a memoir of the Ephrussi family. Originally from Odessa, family members migrated to Paris and Vienna where they established themselves as bankers, accumulating great wealth and status from the period 1871 until the rise of Nazi power. The family collected wood and ivory netsuke, ultimately inherited by the author, a sculptor living in London. I strongly recommend the recounting of a family’s journey of its rise and dissolution that parallels so much of the history of Paris and Vienna from 1871 on.

CBY Men’s Club ~ Stuart Blickstein, President

Well, transition time is here and a new leadership team is in place. A heartfelt thank you is due to the great team who has led the Men’s Club through the past year; Nelson Adelman and his many, many able board members, aides and workers. It was truly “A League of Extraordinary Gentlemen.”

Allow me also to thank all of those who have accepted positions on the new Men’s Club Board, and all those who will work, unheralded, to make our endeavors successful.

While I’m at it, congratulations to Twyla Sable and the new CBY board. We, the Men’s Club, stand ready to serve you. As your new President, (the one who forgot to say “not me”), I hope to continue the forward march that Men’s Club has been on for the past several years. We will continue the traditions of meetings that create and enhance friendship among the men of our congregation; support the spiritual needs and interests of our community; assist our children and youth to connect with their synagogue and Judaism; and, in general, lend hands wherever and whenever they are needed.

Please see our page on the CBY website for details of coming events, and feel free to contact me with any and all suggestions.

Next meeting: Tuesday, July 14, 12:15 PM at CBY.

Stuart Blickstein, President
We are searching for all those members who joined Congregation Beth Yam from 1981 to 2001 to attend a special brunch in their honor.

The success of Congregation Beth Yam has been largely the result of all those members who came first and worked so hard and contributed so much. We want to thank them and acknowledge their efforts that helped make Congregation Beth Yam what it is today.

We know so many of you have become less active at CBY, but we really need your experience, expertise, and wisdom. We've heard "I did my share, now let someone else do it." But the reasons you got involved originally are still there. We need Congregation Beth Yam to stay strong and be a positive voice in the community for the Hilton Head Jewish population. We really miss you, but more importantly we need you. So get back into the loop without having to do any of the "heavy lifting."

"I'm standing on the shoulders of the ones who came before me"

Normandy Kaddish Project, June 6, 2014

Abstract of Board Meeting, June 9, 2014 ~ Judy Bluestone

Rabbi Bloom reported that the June 3 Tikkun Leil Shavuot program on June 3 was very well received and will become an annual learning experience to breathe new life into the celebration and understanding of Shavuot.

- Starting in August, Shabbat Torah services will be moved from 8 pm to 7:30 pm to accommodate members who live a distance from CBY. Finally, Rabbi Bloom urged board members to attend the screening of the movie "Trembling Before God."
- Treasurer Bob Sable stated that he expects CBY will end the year ahead of budget.
- Our current membership is 292.
- The Friends Campaign has raised over $69,000 this year compared to $53,000 in 2013. The chairs, Pete Leff and Ted David, were commended on an excellent campaign and our members were recognized with deep appreciation for their generosity.
- Ted David, a member of URJ's Board of Governors, reported the following:
  - The formula for calculating the financial obligation of reform synagogues to the national organization is being reviewed and updated.
  - URJ is working on a strategic plan.
  - The national Presbyterian church is set to vote on a proposal that the church divest funds from companies which do business with Israel. Rabbi Rick Jacobs, president of URJ, has been invited to speak against this proposal at their annual meeting in Detroit. Reform congregations were urged to become aware of this and establish dialogues with their local Presbyterian churches. Rabbi Bloom stated that he was well aware of the upcoming vote and has been in contact with the minister of First Presbyterian. He has written a column for The Packet on the subject and has engaged with other local clergy on the subject of the Boycott, Divest and Sanction movement against Israel and their efforts to force Israel to give up the West Bank among other concessions to Palestinians.
  - The board thanked Debbie Urato, Joe Levy, Mike Werner and Ellen Jenner for updating our CBY history soon to be available in hard back in the JRC.
  - Our new electronic display system is mounted and minimally functional.
  - Technological issues are being addressed.
  - Policies regarding cleanup after private events will be clarified.
  - Mike Weingarten was thanked by the members of the board for an excellent tenure during which so much was accomplished for CBY. Twyla Sable was welcomed an incoming president.
