Rabbi’s Message

Sometimes I am simply amazed at the generosity of our congregants. “Dayeinu”, we recite in the Passover Haggadah, “It would have been enough for us.” We sing these words, had God given us the Sabbath or the Torah or had God given us any number of miracles recorded in this liturgical song, we say each time, “It would have been enough for us.”

I recall this text in honor of not only of our forthcoming Passover festival but also in regards to the generous spirit that continues to manifest itself in the life of the congregation. In the spirit of Dayenu, it would have been enough for us had we received this beautiful synagogue edifice some eight years ago. It would have been enough for us had we received a Torah or a Purim Megillah scroll or beautiful Judaic art that adorns our temple. This time I am thinking about a special program privately funded by some blessed congregants for our teens.

This month we are sending three of our teens to a special program called March of the Living. This is a world-wide program where teens and adults fly to Poland and study the history of the Holocaust, culminating in a march into the gates of the Auschwitz concentration camp. They spend a week in Europe and then the group of Jewish teens from all over the world flies to Israel and explores in another week the joys and history of Eretz Israel. By the time they return from this two-week trip the young people have been exposed to what many call the modern day exodus and its redemption, “Next Year in Jerusalem.”

Thanks to these generous congregants we will send our students towards the end of April to experience the observance of Yom HaShoah and Israel Independence Day—Yom HaAtzma’ut. They will return with enthusiasm and insights to their experience and will give their perspectives to not only us, but to their schools as well. It is a once in a lifetime opportunity to give our youth the role of being witnesses to the degradation and redemption of the Jewish experience in modern times.

Even the Passover narrative starts with the statement, “We begin with degradation and conclude our story with great praise.” Our youth are part of the witnesses in the March of the Living program and it will surely impact them for years to come.

So I would like to express my deepest appreciation to these anonymous donors who care about the youth in this congregation and want to go above and beyond for them. I also want to thank the parents who support their children’s education and who are equally committed to inculcating their children with the bitter and the sweet of our history. We are living in times today when we need to do all that we can to help our teens grasp not only the rituals and the basics of Hebrew and Jewish practices but to transform their vision of real life and to see how they fit into a larger picture of Jewish history.

On behalf of Linda and myself, I wish you all a zizen Pesach, a sweet and joyous Passover.

Hag Sameah,
Rabbi Brad L. Bloom MSW DD

Celebrate Israel

The State of Israel will celebrate its 69th anniversary on May 2, 2017. Please join us and Hilton Head Hadassah as we show our love and support of Israel which is so dear and necessary to us as American Jews. The moving Yom HaZikaron ceremony and a Yom HaAtzma’ut musical tribute to Naomi Shemer, Israel’s beloved composer, will be followed by a light dinner of Israeli food “a la carte” provided by Kfir Gispan of Crave by Daniels. Reservations are necessary. Please CLICK HERE to reserve your place.

Men’s Club—Alan Krumholz, President

The Men’s Club held its March lunch meeting on April 14 at CBY. We had a speaker from the Bedminster Group, Mr. Steve Weber. He gave an interesting talk on financial management. Our spring dinner meeting will be on April 18 at 6:00 PM at Frankie Bones. Our annual meeting will be a Sunday Brunch on June 4.

Please contact Stuart Blickstein, Nelson Adelman or Mike Werner of our events committee, with any ideas for new events, or revivals of old meeting programs.

We welcome your suggestions for short programs for future meetings, and larger scale events.

If you are a dues paying member and not receiving our regular emails please contact me at (843) 686-6195 and we will update our list to include your direct email. Thanks for your cooperation.
Message From The President—Pennie Meiselman

April 1, known as April Fool’s Day, has actually been celebrated for many centuries, but the exact origin remains a mystery. Some historians speculate that April Fool’s Day dates back to 1582, when France switched from the Julian calendar to the Gregorian calendar. People who failed to get the news of the change and didn’t know that the start of the new year had moved to January 1 and continued to celebrate it during the last week of March through April 1 became the recipient of many jokes and hoaxes.

One example of a modern day hoax is in 1998 when Taco Bell announced they were going to purchase The Liberty Bell and rename it The Taco Liberty Bell.

Our celebration of the Festival of Passover begins Monday evening April 10. Tuesday evening, April 11, is the Sisterhood Community Seder to be held at the temple, catered by the Serg Group. Rabbi Bloom will lead the Seder accompanied by our soloist Adriana Urato and our Music Director David Kimbell.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Fund Raising Committee for the wonderful “Evening to Remember” honoring the Founders of CBY. How fortunate we were to have so many of our Founders to honor, say “Thank You” and to hear great stories about the beginning of our synagogue. We were also able to sit and chat with them throughout the evening.

Thank you to everyone who attended and participated in its success as well as several of our Affiliate members who supported the evening long distance.

We live in the beautiful Low Country, but we must remember the 6 million Jews who lost their lives in Europe during the Shoah with the Yom HaShoah service on Sunday, April 23. We should never take for granted the life we have here in “paradise”.

Chag Same’ach,

Pennie

Telling Our Stories

Join us on Saturday, May 6 at 7:00 PM for an evening of remembering. As part of our yearlong “Exploring Our Roots” project we have seen movies, read books and heard lectures about the Jewish immigrant experience. We now invite you to tell your family story. We are planning a coffee and program. If you would like to participate by telling your family story for about 10 minutes please email Barbara Slagowitz.

Lunch and Learn

You don’t want to miss this very special event. Our book is Jewish Pirates of the Caribbean and our special guest will be Dr. Al Palachi, relative of one of the Pirates. As usual we will meet at 12:30 in the social hall. Bring your lunch, coffee and dessert will be served. The book is available in our library and on Amazon.

Ritual Committee—David Kurjan, Chair

There are two meaningful events taking place this month. First up is possibly the favorite Jewish holiday of the year: Passover, commemorating the Exodus from Egypt and receiving the Ten Commandments. It is arguably the most important event of all time. The very first Passover was celebrated in Egypt itself more than 3,300 years ago and marked the first holiday the Jews ever celebrated. Most of us really love chicken soup with matzah balls, a staple at most Passover Seder. The world largest matzah ball was made in New York City in 2009. It measured 22.9 inches wide and weighed 267 pounds, and it was made to raise money for a New York Knicks vs. Tel Aviv Maccabi charity basketball game. Money raised from the game went to Migdal Ohr, an orphanage in Northern Israel. Our community Seder is attended by about 120 people. That’s nothing. The world’s largest Passover Seder, boasting more than 1,000 participants, is held yearly in Kathmandu, Nepal.

The other significant event in April will be Yom HaShoah (Holocaust Remembrance Day). We will observe this day on April 23 with Student Cantor Daniel Geigerman and our Shabbat Choir. The theme of this observance will be the life and writings of the late Elie Wiesel.
Religious School—Robin Krumholz, Principal

Purim! We danced, sang, made noise, and ate our way through the month of March! Our Purim Carnival, designed and run by our Youth groupers, following the theme of the Wizard of Oz; same theme as our community celebration. Students “Followed the Yellow Brick Road”, “Pinned the Heart on the Tin Man”, “Melted the Witch”, played “Glinda Says”, and many other creative games on the theme. We had a wonderful showing of 10 families at the Community Purim “PersOz Shepiel” with 5 of our students on stage as lollipop carrying “PersOzkins”. We read stories, made scrolls, hamantashen and goggers, stuffed Mishloach Manot baskets of goodies, and continued the celebration in song with Cantor Geigerman.

Our Family Shabbat this month was filled with creative student reflections on God.

The Religious School faculty team has had some changes this month.

- Shelby Keating has taken the role of Youth Group Director, and will no longer be teaching our Gimel and Hebrew School classes.
- Gimel and Hebrew School Classes will now be taught by Sarah (Bornstein) Howard.
- We have hired Sarah’s sister, Melissa Bornstein, to take over the Bet class for Sarah.
- Mona Griffer, who had graciously stepped in to fill Valerie’s place in the Aleph class has taken on more responsibility at her real job up north, and can’t be in town on most Sundays.
- We have hired Andrea Lagos as a permanent substitute for the rest of the school year. We are grateful to Mona for having juggled her work calendar to be here for us, throughout the winter.
- Ilana Rosencrantz, who stepped in to teach the Middle School/Gesher students in place of Josh, has also moved on. Alan Krumholz will be finishing out the year inspiring our Pre-B’nai Miztvah students.

Please welcome Melissa, Andrea and Alan to our Religious School Community when you see them!

The Religious School will be in need of Substitute Teachers in both Aleph and Bet classes for several dates this Spring. If you are willing to reap the rewards of inspiring our youngest members, then please get in touch with me, and I will share the dates needed. Lesson plans and materials will be provided. No Hebrew skills required, as a wonderful Youth Group classroom aide will be at your side to teach that part of the lesson if you’d like.

March of The Living

This month, thanks to the generosity of a number of CBY members, and in collaboration with our own Rabbi Bloom and Rabbi Guttman from Temple Emanuel in Greensboro, NC, we are sponsoring three CBY High School students to attend the 28th Annual International March of the Living. Rabbi Guttman has been leading Marches of teens from the Mid-Atlantic Region for the past 15 years. With the support of our benefactors, we hope to offer scholarships each year to deserving students to offset most of the cost of this life changing experience. CBY scholarship applicants are required to have become a B’nai Miztvah, attended Religious School, and fulfilled other requirements to become eligible. This year’s scholarship recipients are: Ariel Shatz, Elaina Urato, and Alex Wynne.

The International March of the Living (MOTL) brings thousands of Jewish teens together from 52 countries each year to Poland for Yom HaShoah (Holocaust Remembrance Day). The students march in solidarity on a 3-kilometer journey from Auschwitz to Birkenau as a tribute to all victims of the Holocaust. The trip continues onto Israel concluding in Jerusalem on Yom HaAtzma’ut (Israeli Independence Day). During their travels, the students study the history of the Holocaust and examine the roots of prejudice, intolerance and hate. The goal of the MOTL program is to develop young ambassadors able to carry forth the testimonies of Holocaust survivors to future generations. These students are among the last generation able to meet a living Holocaust survivor.

Arial, Elaina, and Alex have prepared for the trip through a series of special classes with Rabbi Bloom over the past few months and will be departing on their adventure on April 19th. They will be sending us updates of their experiences and congregants will have the opportunity to hear from them after they return. Please support them and join us at Shabbat Services on Friday evening April 14th when Rabbi Bloom will bless them for a safe journey.

For more information, contact Renee Roth, chairperson of the CBY MOTL Scholarship Committee, and check the website MOTL.ORG.

Youth Group—Robin Krumholz, Acting Director

Our new Youth Group Director, Shelby Keating, orchestrated our Youth Groupers in creating and running our 10th Annual Religious School Purim Carnival, with the “The Wizard of Oz” theme, as described in our Religious School article. This photo shows our Youth Groupers hard at work, dreaming up the games in their comfy youth lounge. We earned over $200 through the sale of game tickets, pizza, hamantashchen and other pastries. Food donations came from NYC Pizza, Cheap Seats Tavern, and Atlanta Bread.

Earnings will go to support Youth Groupers attending NFTY Spring Kallah at Camp Coleman.

Looking forward to next month, when our Youth Group Article will be authored by our new Youth Group Director!
Sue Gostanian

As I write this, it is almost Spring, although Spring in the Low Country is hard to explain to family (in Connecticut), as they are slogging through another snow storm. Here, we must contend with cars that are coated with pollen, but the landscape changes every day as blooms start to appear. The debris left behind by Matthew is almost gone, leaving a greater sense of appreciation for our community and the special place in which we live.

At CBY, the sense of community is evident in everything we do. The evening honoring our Founders was an example of congregants pitching in to do their part. I see the same attitude exhibited by members of Sisterhood. As we plan the Women’s Seder and the Community Seder, the Committee Chairs never have to ask twice as they recruit volunteers to bake, set up, decorate and whatever else is needed. Our members are happy to respond to the needs of our community, as well as our children. This has been a year of unusual “needs” that we have tried to help meet, along with the rest of our CBY family.

I admire the many talents shared by Sisterhood members as they plan events. We share our collective history as we celebrate Passover; we are aware of our unity as we come together. Our bonds are strong, rooted in appreciation of what we have survived, and who we are.

Please continue to join us as we present programs and events. As a Sisterhood member, you may enjoy “sampling” an event. We are always happy to welcome you.

Yours in Sisterhood, Sue

Women’s Seder Report
On Wednesday, March 29, Sisterhood held our 17th Annual Women’s Seder. More than 60 women participated in this special event commemorating the contributions of women to the history of the Jewish people. Sisterhood would like to thank all the women who worked to make the Seder a success.

Wishing all of you a Happy Passover,
Cathy Kite, Women’s Seder Chair

Community Seder
It is not too late to sign up for the Community Passover Seder to be held on the second night of Passover, Tuesday, April 11, 2017 at 5:00 PM. The Seder will be led by Rabbi Bloom, with musical accompaniment by Adriana Urato and David Kimbell. The Serg Group will cater the event; everyone enjoyed their wonderful food last year. The deadline for reservations is April 2, so act quickly. Any reservations received after this date will be filled from our waiting list. CLICK HERE for the registration form. JoAnne Doyle and Janice Fradkin

BYO Game Nite
This year has been filled with trying out new ideas to fund raise for the many charities Sisterhood supports. We are going to try another new idea. We would like to invite the congregation to a BYO Game Nite to be held at the synagogue on Monday, May 1, 2017 at 7:00 p.m. You bring the game and your friends and we will supply the tables, nosh and drinks. The cost will be $10.00 per person. No muss, no fuss, no clean up. Just fun being with friends. If you do not have a pre arranged game, we will get one together for you. For more information, please do not hesitate to call me at (609) 313-9036. Carol Carty, Fund Raising VP. Be on the lookout for information for another different event coming your way.

Onegs: Thank you to these Oneg hosts for February: Tena Graber, Eve Sanker, Judie Aronson, Sharon Bass, Fran Gellman, Judy Movshin, Suzie Eisinger and the religious school families.

If you have not already signed up please RSVP by Thursday, May 4, to Judie by email. Please send the names of all recommended books for future reading (and synopsis of same) to Judie before May 11. A list of these books will be discussed at the May meeting.

Women’s Study Group
On February 22 twenty women participated in the 2nd Women’s Study Group (formerly Lilith), graciously hosted by Helen Hauer. Thank you Helen for making us feel so welcome and hosting our large group. Susan Sneider presented Grit, Generosity and Gratitude. Thank you Susan for your insightful, thought provoking and interactive presentation on perseverance despite severe challenge, true generosity and the art of receiving thanks. Thank you to Judy Movshin who arranged the potluck dinner. Thank you to our attendees who so generously contributed the delicious homemade food to the potluck dinner. All of your efforts made the evening fun, and we now have skills to improve how we manage grit, generosity and gratitude.

If someone would like to hostess a future event or would be interested in presenting a topic of interest to the group, please contact JoAnne Doyle or Janice Fradkin

Meeting adjourned

On February 24, 2017, Cantor Daniel, on behalf of the Care Committee and CBY, spent a couple of hours at Bloom of Hilton Head charming the Jewish residents and those of other faiths with his wonderful voice. He explained the songs as he went along and had the residents singing with him. They were so happy to have him there. This visit was the second in a series of visits to the assisted living facilities in our area in an attempt to share “our wealth”, Student Cantor Daniel, with our Jewish community.

The Social Action Committee is committed to social action and social justice. We support the core values of Judaism, the Union of Reform Judaism and the Religious Action Committee. Our CBY community and the greater Lowcountry community should forge strong community bonds in order to stand up against anti-Semitism anywhere as well as all hate crimes and the marginalization of any segment of our population.

Recently Rabbi Bloom, members of SAC and other CBY congregants joined our neighbors, community representatives, and ministers in support of our Latino neighbors at a rally in Bluffton as a result of the county sheriff’s request to have select county police act as immigration agents.

During our Purim celebrations, we retold the story of Esther. In this story, the strength of women is highlighted. SAC supports equal pay for women at a time when women earn $0.70 to the $1.00 of what men earn for the same work.
This Passover as we share our seder meal and retell the story of being a “stranger”, SAC and Sisterhood will once again join in raising awareness of those that are hungry by collecting money for MAZON, an organization that supports the “Jewish response to hunger” globally. Remember to bring some extra gelt to the Women’s and Community Seders.
Please support our CBY blood drive sponsored by SAC and chaired by Jill Harrison. The bloodmobile will be in CBY’s parking lot on Sunday morning April 2. Please donate blood and give the gift of life.

Last month we described a dream about the “Evening to Remember” honoring our founders and generating a successful auction. We're happy to report that that dream became a reality!

136 enthusiastic CBY members filled the temple on the evening of March 4. We heard personal stories from several of our founders, all following a moving Havdalah service led by Rabbi Bloom and assisted by Reverend Miller and Adriana Urato.

The silent auction items filled both the JRC and the religious school quiet room and was a lot of fun - with every item being purchased! Thanks to our own CBY members for the donations of many of their own handcrafted items. Our open bar was sponsored by the generosity of two members and staffed by several Men's Club volunteers (including a certain generous founder!).

We moved into the social hall for a fabulous Viennese dessert presentation (also sponsored by a generous CBY family!). The raffle for a Viking European river cruise was won by a member not in attendance, and the 50/50 raffle was a success due to the generosity of the winning member. In addition, a wonderful cocktail party was enjoyed by several donors a week later due to the hospitality of another member family.

At the end of the evening, the live auction generated both some serious money as well as a lot of laughs. Several members bid to support our camp scholarship fund and the NFTY program for our teens. We even had guests bidding on challahs for Shabbat onegs and rolls of tissue paper for our restrooms!

All in all, a great success created by a terrific group of volunteers. We thank all of you for your creativity, commitment, and plain old hard work! And especially to all our contributing members: we greatly appreciate your support to CBY; your generosity truly made this our "Evening to Remember" and allowed us to exceed our financial projection by 20%.

Thank you!

With the celebration of Passover beginning April 10 we will display a number of Haggadot in our collection. The number increases, although many are pamphlet productions and lacking the elegance of some of the printed versions such as the Sarajevo Haggadah.

We try to highlight the features of our collection in the electronic display in the corridor leading to the sanctuary and would welcome any suggestions you may have for particular features of the books in the JRC for future displays.

Don’t forget that we also have a modest collection of DVDs with entertainment and historical interest. These are all available for lending to our congregants.

Book Review for April: The Soloist by Mark Salzman
Reviewed by Felicia Pascal

The author tells us about Renne Sundheimer, a college teacher who recalls his childhood as a gifted cello prodigy and travelling the world as a soloist. In his teens he lost his confidence and now no longer performs. He is lonely and without the motivation to give much substance to his life. Two events occur to alter his pattern of living. Renne is called to serve on jury duty and also coaxed into teaching a young Korean cellist. This is an interesting read as we follow Renne’s jury duty in a second degree murder trial and his efforts to teach a young and talented child.

To: Jack Resnick, Owner Group 4 Builders
From: Bill and Laura Christie
Subject: Letter of Thanks for Building Our Home

Dear Jack,

I have been in the construction business for over 30 years and had built 3 homes previously, so when it came to building our home in Hilton Head I was certain of exactly what I wanted from a builder. After 6 months of interviewing countless builders we were convinced that you and Group 4 Builders were the right choice on a number of fronts.

First, although this was the first home from dirt to move-in that you had built; solely focusing on remodeling up to that point, the level of complexity of the renovations you had done made me confident building a 4000+ square foot house from the ground up was not going to be a challenge. Again, I have spent my entire career in the construction industry and I knew it was a lot easier starting from a clean canvas rather than not knowing what evils laid behind decades of covered walls. Additionally, I wanted the meticulous eye to detail that major remodeling required, along with the subcontractor base that can make chicken soup out of perhaps not the best looking chicken parts. Imagine if those same subcontractors could also work from a clean canvas?!

Lastly, I am a perfectionist and my wife has an incogitable eye for home design, colors and interior finishes. Any builder was in for a painstaking ride of scrutiny. Jack, you never wavered from your commitment to delivering us the home of our dreams. Despite using foreign materials that I insisted, or requiring standards that your subcontractors had never endured; or being challenged with detailed designs and ever changing requests from Laura, you patiently and without angst made our 11 month journey an experience we can share as a referral to your clients to come.
