What is Purim?

Purim, which literally means “lots”, is the holiday in which Jews commemorate being saved from prosecution in the ancient Persian Empire. According to the Book of Esther in the Bible, the Jews of the city of Shushan were threatened by the villain Haman (boo!!!) a prime minister who convinces the King Ahaseurus to kill the Jews because the Jew Mordecai refused to bow down to Haman (boo!!!) Haman casts lots, hence the name of the holiday, to determine the date he would carry out his plan: the 13th of Adar. In the end the Jews are saved by the heroic queen Esther, Mordecai’s niece and adopted daughter who married Ahasuerus after he banished his first wife, rebellious Vahshti. When Ahasuerus discovers that his wife Esther is Jewish he decided to reverse Haman’s (boo!!!) decree and instead of the Jews being killed, Haman (boo!!!), his sons and other enemies are killed instead.

How is Purim Celebrated?

Purim is the most raucous holiday on the Jewish calendar. Observance of the holiday begins with dressing up in costume—some people dress as characters from the Purim story. It is a mitzvah, yes, a commandment, to listen to the story of Purim chanted from the Megillah Esther (The Scroll of Esther), which we are so blessed to have in our possession, and to hear every word. It is customary to make noise with a grogger every time Haman’s name is mentioned in order to fulfill the obligation of blotting out Haman’s name. Part of the holiday also includes giving gifts of charity to the poor, called matanot l’evyonim. A fun tradition on the holiday is to perform a Purim spiel, a satirical show dramatizing the Purim story in a humorous way.

What kind of foods are eaten on Purim?

Mishloach manot (sending of portions) are packages of treats and goodies sent to friends and family on Purim. Drinking alcohol is mandatory on Purim; in fact, the requirement in the Talmud goes so far as to instruct that one should get so drunk that they can’t tell the difference between the phrases Arur Haman (cursed is Haman) and Baruch Mordecai (blessed is Mordecai). Traditional foods include hamentashen, a triangular cookie usually filled with different flavors of jam which is supposed to represent either Haman’s ears or his three-cornered hat.

Please join Rabbi Bloom, Student Cantor Geigerman and their cast of thousands as they welcome Purim on March 11 at 7:00 PM. This is always a fun evening and we hope to see you all there to follow the yellow brick road.

Rabbi’s Message

This month marks our daughter Leah’s wedding to her b’shert Michael Miller. Many of us who have made weddings for their children understand the excitement and the feelings of seeing a daughter or a son become married. Admittedly, I have officiated at countless weddings over the years but for this one it feels to some degree like being in uncharted waters. Both Linda and I are so happy for Leah that she has chosen a fine young man who loves her and is devoted to her. Similarly, we see the same love and devotion emanating from Leah to Michael. They are a lovely couple.

We are thrilled to share this event with not only our relatives and long time friends from near and far but with you, Congregation Beth Yam, our community in which I serve as Rabbi. Both Linda and I have lived our lives within a Jewish synagogue community and cherish the ideal of the partnership brit or covenant between the rabbi’s family and the community. You have been gracious and hospitable in many ways to our entire family over the years so how could we not share this simcha with you?

Our son-in-law Michael and Leah lived with us in Hilton Head for six months in 2015 and so they have gotten to know quite a few Beth Yam members too. Michael is a sports writer and journalist and Leah is graduating from Towson University this May with a Masters degree in Jewish Education and Communal Leadership. She aspires to devote her professional life to working in the Jewish community. Michael has accepted a position as an editor with the National Association for Credit Management. We are proud of them both and, like all parents, look forward to their forthcoming adventures along the pathway of life.

To refresh your memory on a few Jewish wedding customs, the name of the Jewish Wedding ceremony is Kiddushin which means holiness. Yes, I will have the distinct privilege of officiating at the service. I am what is called the M’sader Kiddushin—the one who arranges the holiness of marriage. Before the wedding ceremony commences, the bride and groom will sign the civil license and the Ketubah which is the Jewish wedding contract. The Ketubah outlines their moral and spiritual commitment to each other. In the service we will raise the chuppah over them which represents their first spiritual home. We will say the blessings of nusuin and erusin which means betrothal. The ring ceremony follows as the bride (kallah) and groom (hatan) proclaim, “Behold, you are consecrated to me according to the faith of Moses and Israel.” Then we recite the seven benedictions which highlight the joyous occasion including the themes of community and praises of God. I will then share a few comments to the bride and groom followed by a special blessing and conclude with the groom breaking the glass. Yes, there are many interpretations for why we perform this last ritual and I’ll save a few for the wedding itself. Following the conclusion of the ceremony, the bride and groom retire for a few minutes for what is called Yihud or consecration of the marriage. It is a few minutes alone to share thoughts and feelings at this most important moment of their lives. Then, let the celebration begin!

On behalf of Linda and myself, I want to thank you for all of your good wishes and your support for us and our children. It has meant a great deal to us and, I know, to them as well. In the Kabbalah it is written, “When a soul is sent down from Heaven, it is a combined male and female soul. The male part enters the male child and the female part enters the female. If they are worthy, God causes them to re-unite in marriage. This is the true blessing of the sacred act of marriage. May it be God’s will to bestow upon our blessed and cherished children a life of Torah, mitzvoth, happiness and good health along with children to enrich their lives and ours as well.

God bless Leah and Michael.

Shalom,

Rabbi Brad L. Bloom MSW DD

Men’s Club—

Alan Krumholz, President

The Men’s Club held its February lunch meeting on February 14 at CBY. The March meeting is on the 14th and the speaker will be Mr. Steve Weber from the Bedminster Group. Our spring dinner meeting will be on April 18. Our annual meeting will be a Sunday brunch on June 4.

Please contact Stuart Blickstein, Nelson Adelman or Mike Werner of our events committee, with any ideas for new events, or revivals of old meeting programs. We welcome your suggestions for short programs for future meetings, and larger scale events.

If you are a dues paying member and not receiving our regular emails it may be due to your system blocking communications from Constant Contact. Please let me know and we will send you an email to help you fix the problem going forward. Thanks for your cooperation.
Message From The President—

Pennie Meiselman

Our weather here in the Low Country has been so beautiful it’s hard to believe that Spring doesn’t officially arrive until March 21st. Spring is a time of restoration or renewal, like a garden that has been dormant for several months.

It can also be renewal of your involvement in Congregation Beth Yam both spiritually and emotionally. Make more of an effort to attend Friday night services, meet old and new friends, enjoy the candle’s glow and the beautiful music. Join us for another very interesting Hot Topic Shabbat.

Reconnect with activities you might have “let fall by the wayside”, over the winter, reconnect with old friends and connect with new members, make new friends.

March 4 is “An Evening to Remember” honoring the founders of Congregation Beth Yam. It will be a delightful evening featuring a Viennese Table with exquisite pastries, delicious coffees and international liquors. Beside the delicacies there will also be both a live and silent auction. If you haven’t made a reservation yet, the President can always make sure there is room for you.

As we move into March and into anticipation of our Women’s Seder as well as our Community Seder in April and Religious School Seder we are powerfully reminded of our history of forced immigration.

Whether our Exodus from Egypt, our Babylonian exile or our refugee status in the 20th Century, we must always be mindful of our history and we must welcome the stranger among us.

Shalom,

Pennie

In March we seem to be concerned with two major themes.

First, we read in the Torah portions that the Israelites are given instruction concerning the building of the Mishkan, the movable sanctuary that they are to carry throughout the wilderness journey. The Torah describes the sanctuary’s implements, the Priests’ clothing, and all the work and materials used to build it. In addition, we read the famous story of the Golden Calf. Second, we celebrate the joyous festival of Purim, which commemorates the deliverance of the Jewish people from the wicked Haman in the days of Queen Esther of Persia (approximately 500 BCE) during the reign of King Xerxes I. Our CBY observance this year, under the leadership of Rabbi Bloom and Student Cantor Geigerman, will have as its theme The Wizard of Oz. The service, which includes the traditional reading of the Megillah, will begin at 7 pm on Saturday evening, March 11. Delicious hamentaschen will be served following the service.

Thank you to all who attended the Exploring Our Roots film festival. Special thanks to Felicia Pascal, Sandee Willis, Marty Slagowitz and Judy Bluestone for their help.

We would welcome new members on our committee. If you are interested please contact Barbara Slagowitz.
Religious School – Robin Krumholz, Principal

This month our students were all busy exploring the tales of Moses, from a babe in a basket to a leader through the desert and atop Mount Sanai.

At our Boker Tov services, Rabbi and students are enjoying seeing each piece of these stories come alive in our Illustrated Torah!

Our Kita Gan preschool students were basking under a rainbow after they loaded Noah’s Ark, 2x2. We welcomed eight students from four new families this semester! We welcome Eli and Leo O’Keefe, Nathaniel Greenberg, Brian and Keaton Nadel, Noah, Logan, and Connor Woods. That brings our enrollment to 48!

Our Family Shabbat this month was centered on the theme “Kehilah Kedosha: A Community Standing Together.” All were entertained by the humor and musical talent of Student Cantor Geigerman.

The Religious School will be in need of Substitute Teachers in both Aleph and Bet classes for several dates this Spring. If you are willing to reap the rewards of inspiring our youngest members, then please get in touch with me, and I will share the dates needed. Lesson plans and materials will be provided. No Hebrew skills required, as a wonderful Youth Group classroom aide will be at your side to teach that part of the lesson if you’d like.

Youth Group— Robin Krumholz, Acting Director

Our Youth Group has been enjoying “hangin’ out” in their awesome lounge, and prancing down the “yellow brick road” preparing for the annual Religious School Purim Carnival (theme is the Wizard of Oz).

You are all welcome to stop in on March 5 at from 11 AM-1 PM to “Nosh some Hamantashen and Hot Dogs” as you watch the kids enjoying our original, hand-made, theme-related games. The sale of all food items will go to support Youth Groupers attending NFTY Spring Kallah at Camp Coleman.

We are grateful to Ellen Jenner and Jeremy Press for finding and donating our new couch and rug! Take a look at how our lounge is shaping up! WE LOVE IT!
Message from the Sisterhood President—

Sue Gostanian

It’s hard to believe almost a year has passed since Cathy Kite “passed the baton” to me as Sisterhood President, telling me that the Women of Sisterhood make things happen; they pitch in and are so supportive of each other, our temple and our community. She was right! Cathy and the women that led Sisterhood before her were so accomplished in their own lives. Each one brought her own unique qualities to the group. As they stepped in to lead, the women never missed a beat...they moved along with new leadership, and “made things happen.”

The members of Sisterhood have created a network of women that have come together to share, to celebrate, and to learn with (and from) each other. This month, we celebrate Passover at the Women’s Seder, and in April at the Community Seder. We celebrate our collective Jewish history as we retell the story of the Exodus, and celebrate our individual histories as we share the family rituals and memories we have cherished. We prepare together, we share with each other and create a unique experience that we look forward to celebrating each year. At the Women’s Seder, we recognize the outstanding contributions of members as we present an award for The Woman of Valor. We also acknowledge continuity of our Sisterhood as we present and vote on the slate of officers for the coming year.

Please join us and add your experiences and qualities to Sisterhood. We welcome new members and the opportunity to grow through your involvement.

Yours in Sisterhood,

Sue

Book: The Marriage of Opposites by Alice Hoffman
Reviewer: Judie Aronson
This book is based on the life of Rachel Pissaro, the mother of the impressionist painter, Camille Pissaro. It traces his parents’ “unlikely” romance and marriage and goes into depth about Pissaro’s life.
This is a wonderful book for discussion!!
RSVP to Judie Aronson.

Women's Seder
Please join Sisterhood for our 17th Annual Women’s Seder on Wednesday, March 29, 2017 at 11 AM.
Our Annual Meeting and election of Board officers will take place immediately preceding the Seder.
See page 13 for more information.
If you would like to help plan the Seder please contact Cathy Kite.

Community Seder
Mark your calendars for the CBY Community Seder, to be held on the second night of Passover, Tuesday, April 11, at 5:00 PM.

Sweetheart Luncheon
On Monday, February 13, fifty-four woman came together for the annual Sweetheart Luncheon. It was a beautiful day outside as well as inside where great food and company were shared. The afternoon also featured a film montage of some of everyone’s favorite stars and scenes cleverly put together by Lori Skope who is the daughter of the chairperson...me.

My thanks to everyone who helped make this day wonderful. A special shout-out goes to Marcie Fine who made the delicious quiches. Also, thanks to the women who came to support Sisterhood and help raise money for the camp scholarship fund.

Care Committee—Carol Carty, Janice Fradkin, Co-Chairs

The Care Committee hospital volunteers continue to bring greetings to all Jewish patients at Hilton Head Hospital—CBY members and non-members alike. Since July, 2016, 38 unduplicated patients have received visits. Thank you, Volunteers!

Social Action Committee—Judie Aronson & Janet Weingarten, Co-chairs

What a wonderful month for SAC and temple. We worked with the Adult Education Committee and presented the documentary The Voyage of the St Louis. This film, which depicted the “escape of almost 1,000 Jews from Germany at the start of WWII and their flight to safety” – which never came!! Thank you to Barbara Frogel for moderating this film. A very interesting question and answer period followed the showing of the film to over 50 CBY members.

A follow up was presented on Saturday at a Hot Topic Shabbat which spoke of the Jewish responsibility to the “Stranger In Our Midst–Ethically and Morally.” Thanks to Ellen Jenner, Alan Krumholz and the Rabbi who led the group of almost 50 congregants to a lively and well received program.

More to come in the months ahead. Beginning March 26 SAC will again be working with All Saints Episcopal Church to feed the guests of Family Promise. If you feel you can help please contact Tena Graber.

On Sunday April 2 from 9 AM-1:30 PM there will be a Blood Mobile in the parking lot of temple. If you can donate or want more information please contact Jill Harrison.

In May the committee plans to stock shelves at Bluffton Self Help and Deep Well. If you can work for a few hours contact Kathy Burnce (for Bluffton Self Help) and/or Cathy Kite (for Deep Well). More information will follow.

SAC is still collecting cell phones for women’s shelters and metal tabs for Ronald McDonald House. Please place donations in the box in the Social Hall of temple.

If you are interested in working with SAC contact Judie Aronson or Janet Weingarten. We would love to have you.
Fundraising Committee—Alan Meiselman, Chair

It was a mighty struggle but the fundraising committee of Congregation Beth Yam overcame the forces of nature, specifically named Matthew, a deep well of depression following the hurricane and a great deal of financial pain suffered by all in the Lowcountry. Yet, the volunteers of the fundraising committee battled them all and succeeded in creating a unique “Evening To Remember, the ABC’s of CBY”, were presented in a video format that was both entertaining and educational. Now we all know why a couple of Jewish couples wanted and created the Jewish embodiment that is now known as Congregation Beth Yam. At the end of the evening we also managed to raise some considerable money for the CBY general fund. A small group of congregants including Janice Fradkin, Janet Weingarten, Howard Rothchild, Barry Dickson, Fred Carty and Dave Solomon, and with the support of Michael Shapiro, Judie Aronson, Jeremy Press and Randy Kurjan and the many supportive members working together who made the event a success. Thanks to all those named and unnamed for their hard work and commitment.

That’s our dream; come to the auction and make it a reality!

Library Committee—Felicia Pascal

We are slowly going through the stash of books that were donated in past months. Much of it is already in our collection and the determination of the Library Committee with Executive Committee approval is to see if we can sell the duplicates to a second hand bookseller. We now have the name of the seller used by the Hilton Head Library to sell excess books that are not sold in their used bookstore. The list is being compiled and we will know if there is a possibility of funding some future purchases for our library after the list is brought up to date. If you have been to the JRC recently, you will note that are shelves are full, so removing duplicates is a must and the ability to provide a practical strategy for our extra books is important.

I want to give a special thanks to Michael Shapiro who maintains the listing of our holdings for the CBY website and Ceil Treiss who updates the electronic hall sign.

It is with sadness that I say thanks and best wishes to Linda Stern who has been serving as co-chair for the Library Committee for at least a half dozen years, if not longer.

Library for Grandchildren

Dear CBY Grandparents,

I recently found a post in my Facebook feed about the PJ Library. The CBY Sisterhood had looked into it last year as a possible activity, but were not able to move forward because of logistical reasons. Fast forward to a few weeks ago, when I saw a post about the PJ Library specifically directed towards grandparents. Having become a doting grandma this year, I decided to join. I was delighted to receive the first book, “Goodnight, Sh’mi’a,” by Jacqueline Jules and illustrated by Melanie Hall.

I thought that some of you might be interested in signing up. I went to the website and found this information: “PJ Library sends free Jewish children’s books to families across the world every month. We know that something magical happens when parents sit down together to read with their children. PJ Library shares Jewish stories that can help your family talk together about values and traditions that are important to you. A program of the Harold Grinspoon Foundation, PJ Library is made possible through partnerships with philanthropists and local Jewish organizations. Families with kids ages 6 months through 8 years old with Judaism as part of their lives, are welcome to sign up. PJ Library welcomes all Jewish families, whatever your background, knowledge, or family make-up, or observance may be. For more information and to sign up, please go to their website at pjlibrary.org.

We are always on the lookout for helping hands and willing book reviewers. If you have an interest, please get in touch with me.

Book Review:  The Black Widow
by Daniel Silva
Reviewed by Elaine Lust

A bomb explodes in the Marais district of Paris, a region known for its large Jewish population. One of the victims has a personal connection to Gabriel Allon, the man poised to be the next chief of Israel’s intelligence service and that is why the legendary assassin and spy joins the hunt for a terrorist mastermind known only as Saladin. Before Silva became a novelist he was a journalist stationed in the Middle East. His Gabriel Allon novels have tracked and, in some cases, anticipated, the rise of the Islamic State group. In his forward he notes that he began writing this story before the Paris attacks of 2015. A dark thriller for difficult times and a must read.

Hurricane Damage

Harold and Ellen were away when Mathew damaged much of Hilton Head. Unfortunately, upon returning they found a good portion of their home had flooded...water had damaged their walls, flooring and carpet.

Group 4 Builders was hired to repair the damages.

The job included new sheetrock, baseboard, trim, beautiful walnut hardwood flooring, carpet and the entire interior of their home was painted.
