

Israel's 75th Birthday "History Through Songs" March 23rd at 5 p.m.

Join us for a special concert featuring the talented Israeli singer, Naama Nachum, and Grammy– Nominated pianist and musical director, Assaf Gleizner.

Naama Nachum, a special guest from Israel will take us on a musical journey through the rich and diverse history of Israel with iconic songs that represent each period. From its foundation in 1948 to the influence of different cultures around the world, to the development of rock and roll, this concert will be an unforgettable experience. The swill also feature performances by iconic singer-songwriters who have made a significant impact on Israeli music. Take advantage of this opportunity to celebrate Israel's 75th Birthday through the power of music.

Assaf Gleizner (NYC)

Born and raised in Israel, Assaf Gleizner is a Grammy nominated composer, music director, orchestrator, and arranger both in New York City and around the world for the past 10 years.

Naama Nachum is a singer-songwriter, actress and vocal coach. She recently debuted "HaLayla Shelach" her new original show at the prestigious Tel Aviv Piano Festival. For the past decade, Naama has been regularly taking part in a wide array of musical productions at Israel's leading theatres. While not performing, Naama is holding a private clinic offering her unique method that combines vocal training, life coaching, and personal development.